

The Steven A. Cohen Military Family Clinic at Metrocare

The Steven A. Cohen Military Family Clinic at Metrocare

Our clinic provides personalized, confidential and evidence-based mental health care to veterans and their families at no cost. Services are available to any person who has served in the U.S. Armed Forces, including the National Guard and Reserves, regardless of role or discharge status, and their family members.

The Military Family Clinic uses evidenced-based practices with a holistic approach to improving the quality of life for our veterans and their families. Services are provided by trained and credentialed staff. Veterans and their family members are able to receive services individually and as a family unit at the same place with the same treatment team.

SERVICES

- Counseling for individuals, groups, couples, children, and families
- Medication management
- Case management
- Life skills & wellness groups

SAME-DAY INTAKE

The expected wait time between an intake screening and a first appointment is within one week.

CONFIDENTIAL

We will never share any confidential information with the VA, DoD, or other public, private, or government entities without permission unless required by law.

WHO WE SERVE

VETERANS

Any person who has served in the U.S. Armed Forces, including the National Guard and Reserves (with a focus on post-9/11 veterans). We seek to complement care provided by the Veterans Administration (VA) and provide support for three under-served groups:

- Veterans who do not receive mental health care in the VA system, whether for reasons of limited accessibility or other factors (including personal preference).
- Veterans who are ineligible for care in the VA system (e.g., due to discharge status, conditions that are not service-connected).

FAMILY

Veteran family members including parents, siblings, children, caretakers, and others, regardless of whether the veteran is seeking treatment at a CVN clinic.
